27. Gard, Sam Bass, p. 239. Charles Schreiner III of Mountain Home, Texas, favors the belief that it was the pistol of Dick Ware that fired the fatal shot; Schreiner owned the Dick Ware pistol in 1980.
28. Hettye Wallace Branch, The Story of "80 John" (Privately published, 1960), p. 32, says that her father, black cowboy (and later independent rancher), Daniel Webster Wallace, used this song. "80 John's favorite song while on duty" was the ballad celebrating the career of Sam Bass. "80 John" was only nine years younger than Sam Bass, and may have known him.
